Lol. This game runs better than No Mans Sky.

Meh, I was just looking around. Saw the No Mans Sky Total FAIL, and a multi-multi-million dollar game (that took many years to develop) and that runs worse than this title.

At least this game did not Permaban me for suggesting another month would improve NMS (where No Mans Sky permabanned me for saying that about ir [Even though the DESTRUCTIVE REVIEWS PROVE ME COMPLETELY RIGHT YET AGAIN]).

Damn Chimps.

No disappointments with GEO Master.. really cool if you have 15 minutes to kill and the urge to test your knowledge.

Let me be straight. it's not the hardest quiz ever. If you, like me, devoured maps as a child then this will be nothing more than showing off.

else it can be a good way to learn a little about the world.

highly recommned. Multiplayer doesn't work.

Rest of the game seems okay. I'll probably keep it. But jeez dudes. I just wanted that sweet sweet multi magic.. A nice little set of quizz for learning worldwide geography basics, in some fun challenge.

Undoubtedly this will enhance your general culture knowledge.

I would have appreciated however more reactivity from the authors, to take into account the issues submitted, and publish or at least forecast some new updates.. Great game :P

Fun, relaxing, and effective :). Very Good

SG. Fun to play and also educational.. I really enjoy this game, works smooth, almost no bugs, specially like modes or minigames, recommend to everyone who want to learn something from games!. Good concept, buggy - keeps crashing if you get a streak of correct answers, so no high scores recorded. Wait for a patch.. Crashes after a few questions in quiz mode. Some questions will fail to have the correct answer appear, global markers for countries are sometimes in the incorrect location, and a plethora of other small issues. There are plenty of free applications that help you learn geography far better than this.
